EMPEROR WILLIAM AT WINDSOR.

CORDIAL SPEECHES.

CONFIRMING THE WORLD'S PEACE.

DEEP IMPRESSION IN GERMANY.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Shooting at Windsor yesterday the German Emperor bagged 700 birds. The Emperor and Empress were entertained by the King and Queen at a State banquet at St. George's Hall, Windsor, last night. The King, in proposing the toast of "Our Guests," referred to the kindness and sympathy shown by the German Emperor on the occasion of the death of Queen Victoria. His Majesty expressed the sincere pleasure that the visit gave Queen Alexandra and himself, "and the whole of my people."

The German Emperor replied, "Many dear memories of bygone days link me to the English Royal family. It is touching to me to spend the happy days of my childhood spent under the roof and within the walls of 'grand old Windsor Castle,' and earnestly hoped that the close relationship between the two Royal families would be reflected in the relations of the two countries. Thus would be confirmed the peace of the world, which it was the constant desire of himself and King Edward to preserve."

The German Emperor conferred the order of the Black Eagle on the Duke of Argyll, Governor and Constable of Windsor Castle, and on the Duke of Wellington, and the order of the Red Eagle on Earl Beauchamp, Lord Steward of the King's Household.

The cordiality of the reception of the German Emperor in England has created a deep impression in Germany. At the conclusion of the visit to Windsor the Emperor will spend a fortnight privately at Highcliffe Castle, Christchurch, Hampshire, the home of Mr. William George Cavendish, Marquis of Devonport.

At the conclusion of the visit to Windsor the German Emperor will return home.

WOMANHOOD SUFFRAGE.

HECKLING A MINISTER.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Advocates of womanhood suffrage persistently interrupted Mr. A. Burrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in the course of his speech at Southampton. Many of his remarks were greeted with loud cries of "No!" and "No!"

Twenty women advocates of woman suffrage, who followed the tactics adopted of interrupting Ministers when speaking at public meetings were ejected at intervals with almost clocklike regularity for interrupting Mr. R. M. Kenna, President of the Education Board, while delivering a speech at Brighton.

LONDON, Nov. 12.

The "Daily Chronicle" states that owing to Prince Valdimir, Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria breaking their verbal promises the Pope has demanded a written declaration from Prince George of Greece and Princess Marie Bonaparte that their offspring shall be educated in the Roman Catholic faith.

IRISH REFORMS.

HINDERED BY LAWLESSNESS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Speaking at Southampton last night, Mr. A. Burrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, said that the Government was doing its best to stop the illegal conspiracy of cattle-driving, which was a breach of the law supposed to follow the land purchase scheme. He insisted in the cattle-driving would endanger all his schemes for reform. He blamed the apathy of the magistrates and graziers in the matter.

THE COAL STRIKE.

ALL MINES DESERTED.

DECISIVE ACTION BY MINERS' COMMITTEE.

COMMONWEALTH STRIKE PROPOSED.

A SECRET UNDERSTANDING SUSPECTED.

SERIOUS OUTLOOK FOR SYDNEY.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

All the collieries in the Newcastle district ceased work yesterday. The only exception was Lambton, which is being worked on tribute. Southern district miners have begun to strike, and one lodge, that at Mount Kembla, has agreed to do so.

THE MINERS' COMMITTEE.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The miners' committee met and carried resolutions appealing to the miners of the southern and western collieries and all coal-producing centres of the Commonwealth to assist in upholding the cause of unionism.

THE LAST OF THESE RESOLUTIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The last of these resolutions sets forth that in the event of no settlement being arrived at to-day all members of the Federation be called upon to work on tribute, and that every constitutional effort be made to stop the production of coal while the struggle lasts.

MR. P. BOWLING, THE PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERATION.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Mr. P. Bowling, the president of the federation, said that these resolutions did not mean that the federation did not desire a peaceful solution of the difficulty. It was quite prepared to come to a settlement on the lines suggested by the Premier.

SHIPPING AT NEWCASTLE IS PARALYSED.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

There is an enormous demand for coal in Sydney, and famine prices are being realised. Advances amounting to 70 per cent on ordinary prices have been paid for supplies. The Water and Sewerage Board has agreed to pay 30s per ton for Bull coal.

A DISLOCATION IN THE SYDNEY FERRY STEAMER TRADE.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

There is a little more than a week's supply of coal on hand, and the managers are arranging for an economic supply of coal. Sydney iron foundries are also threatened with a shortage of coal, and if the strike continues 2000 men must lose their employment.

THE SYDNEY GAS COMPANY'S SUPPLY.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The Sydney Gas Company's supply is only equal to three or four weeks' consumption. At the end of the latter period Sydney may be in darkness.

ANY INTERFERENCE WITH THE RAILWAY AND TRAMWAY SYSTEMS IS UNLIKELY.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Stocks are sufficient for three weeks or a month. But the department will lose £18,000 a week in freight while the strike continues. At their Melbourne meeting the steamship owners decided to throw 19 colliers out of commission and pay off the crews, numbering nearly 600.

THE BROKEN HILL MINES HAVE PREPARED FOR TROUBLE.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The Broken Hill mines have prepared for trouble, and have an average of six weeks' supply of coal. The South Australian Railway Commissioner states that he has sufficient stocks for the present, but if the strike lasts the passenger service may be curtailed.
